25. The troops faced a position of complete anarchy, thousands of desperate incendiaries trying to set fire to every building. They were compelled to adopt the strictest measures and employed machine guns against the mob.
26. It is said that at 3 o'clock this morning a large body of rioters tried to enter the central part of the city by way of Polish Hill, and that a terrible fusillade was kept up by both sides with rifles and revolvers.
27. It is also said that hundreds were killed and that when the mob tried to ascend the steps near the Church of St. Nicholas to reach the Boulevard St. Nicholas the Cossacks and other troops fired repeated volleys into the crowd, with terrible results, wagon loads of dead being carried away. Many lives, it is said, were lost in the endeavors to reach the city.
28. The conflagration extended for over a mile and thousands of tons of railway trestles, supporting the elevated railroad surrounding the port, together with all the contiguous buildings, were consumed, the troops in the meanwhile firing volleys to compel the rioters to desist. It is stated that three police officers, ten policemen, twenty-three Cossacks and ten infantrymen were killed in these encounters.
29. Funeral of Omilchuk.
30. The funeral of Omilchuk, which has just been held, became an imposing popular demonstration, which fortunately was without disorder. A procession of many thousands of persons followed the body to the military cemetery. The coffin, which was covered with the St. Andrew's flag and on which there were numerous wreaths, was carried by eight sailors. The procession was headed by priests. Neither police nor troops were stationed along the route to the cemetery, owing to a wise decision by the authorities and by which the possibility of a collision was averted.
31. In the most unruly section of the city the populace treat the proclamation warning people to remain indoors in the evening with the greatest derision and contempt, and freely announce their in-

While Terror-stricken Odessa Sits in Ashes, Counting Her Hundreds of Dead, Czar and Grand Dukes Plan Against Aroused Wrath of People.

Guns of the Potemkin Still Served by Mutinous Hands—Troops Refuse to Fire.

LONDON, June 30.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Odessa correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, in a dispatch filed at 11:30 o'clock Thursday night, says that the Kniaz Potemkin was firing on the town, and that Admiral Kruger's squadron was not in sight.

SQUADRON SUSPICIOUSLY SLOW.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 30, 2:45 a.m.—A dispatch which arrived here early this morning from Sebastopol announces that a squadron of battleships—the Tri Sviatella, the Snopce and the Rostislav—with a cruiser and several torpedo boats started for Odessa only at 5 o'clock last evening. This explains the non-appearance of the squadron at Odessa, but it is difficult to conjecture the reasons for delaying departure two days at such a critical juncture.

VOLUNTEER CRUISER BURNED.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—It is reported that the volunteer fleet cruiser Saratoff has been burned at Odessa.

Admiral Kruger's squadron is expected to arrive at Odessa tonight. His orders are to summon the Kniaz Potemkin to surrender and, if she refuses, to sink her, after which he is to assist in restoring order in the town.

SAILORS MUTINY AT LIBAU.

LIBAU (Government of Courland, Russia) June 29.—The Russian sailors here mutinied last night, attacked the government stores, seized arms and fired into the officers' quarters. Infantry, artillery and Cossacks were brought to the scene of the fighting, but the result is not known.

Intense excitement prevails here.

GREAT FIRE DESTROYING SHIPPING.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29, 8:30 p.m.—Another untimed dispatch received this afternoon from Odessa, and which may have been delayed by the authorities, says:

"The mutineers of the battleship Kniaz Potemkin still hold the ship. Rear-Admiral Kruger's squadron has not arrived here." A great fire is destroying the shipping in the harbor and the buildings along the shore.

In the streets, a continuous battle of small arms is heard. The military everywhere are shooting into the crowds, which are panic-stricken and madly rushing hither and thither for shelter.

STATE OF SIEGE DECLARED.

A state of siege has been declared in the city. The conflagration is sweeping along the harbor front, the sailors and strikers refusing to permit attempts to extinguish the flames. Three uninsured ships of the Pan-Russian Company have been destroyed. The offices of the port administration, the stores of the Pan-Russian and the Russian companies and many private establishments and a great number of wood yards have been burned.

The fire is now consuming long lines of railroad cars containing cargoes unloaded from foreign ships. Many ships succeeded in leaving the harbor.

DETAILS OF MUTINY CONFIRMED.

The surviving officers of the battleship Kniaz Potemkin number eleven, instead of eight. A number of them were sent ashore today by the mutineers. They confirm the details of the mutiny cabled to the Associated Press.

The body of Omilchuk today was again taken on board the Kniaz Potemkin, from which a delegation of the crew visited the commander of the Odessa military district and asked him to accord a military funeral to the dead sailor.

The newspapers have suspended publication. All regular business is at a standstill.

MUTINY ON GOVERNMENT TRANSPORT.

ODESSA, June 29.—The crew of a government transport which arrived here today from Nikoloff mutinied, seized their officers and joined the crew of the battleship Kniaz Potemkin, to whom they turned over the captain and other officers of the transport.

It is rumored that the foreign consuls have applied to their respective governments to send warships to Odessa.

Hundreds of rioters were shot and killed by troops during last night.

Practically the entire harbor was gutted by the fires started by the mob last night. All the warehouses, with large quantities of merchandise, as well as four or five Russian steamers, were burned.

The remnants of the wharves and warehouses set on fire last

WAR IN ODESSA, DECLARES CZAR.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Emperor has issued the following ukase, addressed to the ruling senate: "In order to guarantee public safety and to terminate the disorders at Odessa and neighboring localities, we have found it necessary to declare a state of war in Odessa and district, and to invest the commander of the troops in the military district of Odessa with the rights of military authority, and especial rights of civil administration, for the defense of order and public tranquility."

ALMOST INTO LAST TRENCHES.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—The action of the Mayors assembled at Moscow in discarding the semistvo programme and pronouncing boldly for a constitution is another poser for the government. With armed rebellion at Loda, the whole country in a ferment and the elected Mayors of the large cities demanding a constitution, the government appears almost to be driven into its last trenches.

night is still burning today and the city is enveloped in a thick cloud of smoke.

The losses are estimated at many millions of roubles.

EXPLOSIONS OCCUR IN PORT.

Several explosions occurred in the port during the night and fierce conflicts took place between the troops and rioters. The dead are now reckoned in the hundreds.

The hospitals are overflowing with wounded persons and the medical aid available is quite inadequate.

The shops are closed and business and traffic is suspended. The streets are occupied by troops. Many residents are leaving Odessa.

The comrades of Omilchuk actively fought on the side of the rioters against the troops.

SEMBLANCE OF ORDER RESTORED.

ODESSA, June 29, evening.—A semblance of order has been restored, but the situation is still most difficult.

The central railway station was destroyed by fire this evening, many persons being injured and taken to the hospitals. The populace is still in a vengeful mood and unless the situation is handled with the utmost care anything may yet happen.

Thus far, the only incident reported this evening, beside the burning of the Central railway station, is the explosion of a bomb in a private house, by which several persons were injured.

It is impossible to get precise information or permission to visit the actual scenes of conflict. Sensational accounts, which cannot be definitely confirmed, are current regarding Wednesday night's rioting. In these accounts it is stated that more than a thousand people were killed.

FACED COMPLETE ANARCHY.

The troops faced a position of complete anarchy, thousands of desperate incendiaries trying to set fire to every building. They were compelled to adopt the strictest measures and employed machine guns against the mob.

It is said that at 3 o'clock this morning a large body of rioters tried to enter the central part of the city by way of Polish Hill, and that a terrible fusillade was kept up by both sides with rifles and revolvers.

It is also said that hundreds were killed and that when the mob tried to ascend the steps near the Church of St. Nicholas to reach the Boulevard St. Nicholas the Cossacks and other troops fired repeated volleys into the crowd, with terrible results, wagon loads of dead being carried away. INSURANCE INQUISTION.

Superintendent Hendricks to Investigate Mutual Life—Resignation of Equitable Director.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) NEW YORK, June 29.—It was announced at the office of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York today that State Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks has made arrangements to investigate that company along the same lines as he has investigated the Equitable Life Assurance Society. The investigation is at the request of Richard A. McCurdy, president of the company.

Gen. Lewis Fitzgerald sent his resignation as a director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society to Chairman Morton today. Gen. Fitzgerald was an intimate friend of the late Henry B. Hyde, and was associated with him in the Equitable Society and a number of other corporations.

Chairman Morton announced today that United States Senator Depew's retainer of $20,000 a year and the retainer of former Gov. David B. Hill of $5000, both as attorneys, have been discontinued. George H. Squire, a former employe of the society, has been notified that his pension of salary of $1000 a month will cease July 1.

BEEF TRUST INDICTMENTS.

FEDERAL JURY HEARS ITS LAST WITNESS.

At Least Thirty Packers and Lawyers Will be Indicted—Evidence of W. D. Miles the Chief Factor. Agreements are Held in Various Parts of the Country.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Federal grand jury heard the last witness in the beef trust inquiry today, and retired to deliberate upon the indictments which will be returned either tomorrow or Saturday. In the Federal building, it is said by government attorneys that at least thirty packers and lawyers will be indicted, and it seems certain that several of the true bills will be aimed at prominent men whose arrest will cause a national sensation.

The jury has been in session since March 28. It has examined more than 300 witnesses, and its session is declared to be the longest session of a Federal grand jury in the history of the United States.

"Investigation of the packing industry has been an enormous undertaking," said United States District Attorney Morrison. "I have never heard of a grand jury, either State or Federal, which sat half the time this body has been in session. I believe the jury has done its work thoroughly and well, and I am satisfied with what it has accomplished. I cannot say definitely how many indictments it will return. That is now up to the grand jury itself."

DUE TO MILES.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) CHICAGO, June 29.—It is said the chief factor in causing the indictments which are expected has been the evidence of W. D. Miles, a former employe of Armour & Co. Miles, it is said, left the employ of Armour & Co., because of some disagreement, and later, while in Washington, told the President and Atty.-Gen. Moody many of the details of the inner workings of the beef business. He was brought to Chicago and asked to testify before the grand jury. He testified to agreements held in various parts of the United States.

HAY GAINING STEADILY.

NEWBURY (N. H.) June 29.—Secretary of State Hay, though still confined to his bed, continues to gain steadily. Last night he slept well, and today he appeared much refreshed and considerably stronger.

Chinese Chamber of Commerce Wonders if All Men are "Created Free and Equal."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) SELANGOR (Malay Peninsula) June 29.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Chinese Chamber of Commerce will meet July 2 to consider the question of joining in the boycott of American merchandise until the Chinese exclusion act is repealed.

The feeling here is high, and it is considered probable that the local Chinese will join in the movement.

IN HONOLULU.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) HONOLULU, June 29.—A Chinese mass meeting has been called for Saturday night to endorse the efforts being made in China to effect a boycott of American goods on account of the operations of the American exclusion law.

WALLACE LET GO.

Railroads Knock the Panama Canal.

Chief Engineer's Resignation Immediately Asked by the President.

Transcontinental Lines Tried to Tamper With Shonts, Who Scorned Them.

Sensational Stories Set at Rest by an Official Statement by Taft.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All of the false stories that for months have been circulated, to the effect that there was discussion in the Panama Canal Commission, that there was a dispute as to whether the canal should be sea-level or lock, and that canal affairs generally were in chaotic condition, were stopped tonight when Secretary of War Taft gave out a statement as to the real reason why Engineer Wallace is leaving canal work.

This statement showed two things: First, that Engineer Wallace did not resign until he was asked to do so by the President, through Secretary Taft, and, second, that the Transcontinental Railroads are again getting in their work to prevent or delay the actual beginning and prosecution of work upon the canal.

Wallace did not quit canal work because he had been offered another engineering job at a higher salary. He himself admitted, in Secretary Taft's statement, that he was going to become president of some stockholding company, without saying what that company was. It is, however, in Washington that the stockholding company is one that may be formed by the railroads for the express purpose of taking Wallace away from his work on the canal, and so embarrassing the administration in the prosecution of that work. When it is known, as it is known tonight, that, soon after Shonts became a member of the Canal Commission and chairman of the board, he was offered an important place by transcontinental railroads at a much higher salary than he is getting with the canal commission, the game that the railroads are playing to balk canal work may better be understood. When this offer came to Shonts and he was asked to embarrass the United States government by quitting just as he was getting things into running order, he made this reply: "I sat into this game to stay to the finish, and I am going to stay."

When Wallace commenced cabling to Washington for leave to quit his post, Shonts, therefore, knew what was up. He knew that somebody interested was trying to take away from the canal commission its chief engineer, and so cripple the work. So when Wallace came to talk with Secretary Taft, Taft knew all about the whole matter, and instead of resigning, with bonuses being thrown after him, Wallace was asked for his resignation instantly, and it was accepted by the President instantly.

The departure of Wallace may delay work for a few weeks, until another chief engineer can be got to the isthmus, but another engineer is now in sight, and it is believed that in future no railroad combination will try to take away important canal employes and that if they do, after the drubbing that Wallace got at the hands of Secretary Taft and the President, no canal employe or official will care to leave his post until his work is done. It may be said that this cleans up the only sore spot there is in the personnel of the canal board, and that beyond temporary delay no harm will be done. There is no discussion among the members of the board. Their plans are in good shape, and everything will be working smoothly in remarkably short time.

[Official correspondence of Secretary Taft relative to canal matters will be found in other columns.—Ed. Times.]

THE OFFER.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) WASHINGTON, June 30.—The offer that induced Chief Engineer John F. Wallace to quit his post on the Panama Canal Commission came from the Interborough Rapid Transit Company of New York City, operating the elevated and subway lines, and carries with it a salary of $40,000 a year.

ARIZONA COMMERCIAL STOCK.

BOSTON (Mass.) June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William A. Palma will probably soon be elected president of the Arizona Commercial Copper Company and the general office be removed from New York to Boston. Papers are now being prepared for the listing of Arizona Commercial Company stock upon the Boston Exchange.

Commanders of the city and guard public buildings, especially the banks within and without.

Showing the strong military hold on the city, many councilors were prevented by the troops from reaching the town hall to attend a meeting of the Municipal Council.

It is quite impossible as yet to obtain any accurate estimate of the number killed or injured.

Nothing has yet been heard of Admiral Kruger's squadron.

RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT FRANTIC.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, June 30, 2:58 a. m.—The Russian government, although it has been almost paralyzed by the terrible events at Odessa and the news that the sailors at Libau also have mutinied, is making desperate and frantic efforts to meet the situation and stamp out the flames of revolution before they spread to the army, which is now the last bulwark of the autocracy.

With Poland red with the spirit of revolution, the Cossacks already almost in a state of civil war, agrarian disorders spreading rapidly, and the whole country profoundly stirred, and the brilliant classed and trained against the government, the time seems ripe for the long predicted revolution.

The first act of the government after dispatching Admiral Kruger's squadron from Sebastopol was to summon the Russian fleet to the city.

It was reported that the crews of the torpedo boats which accompanied it to Odessa, to surrender, under the threat of firing on the vessel.

This was followed by the declaration of martial law at Odessa and Libau, and the clothing of the military commanders with orders to suppress the revolt.

MEET FOR DEFENSE.

The newly-formed council met last night under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas, and was in session long after midnight. Beyond the fact that the emperor of Russia was considered at length, nothing is known of what occurred in the council or regarding the decisions at which it arrived.

Great fear is expressed that many regiments are honeycombed with secession, and there is grave doubt of their loyalty should they be called upon to suppress the revolution.

Indeed, the most startling stories involving the unreliability of the troops are being repeated in St. Petersburg, but the truth or many of them is more than questionable.

CAN'T SUPPRESS THE NEWS.

What effect the news of the happenings at Odessa will have on the troops and the people in general is problematical. The precautions to keep the news from being retained in the city are in vain, the revolutionists having means of communication everywhere, and within twenty-four hours it will be known in the remotest corners of the empire. When the news reaches the army in Manchuria it is bound to create a deep impression. The authorities, however, realizing that it will be certain to leak out, and that there would be exaggerations, gave versions of it, perhaps to pave the way for a formal announcement, but these only contain information without details.

When the temper of the Black Sea sailors is considered, the desire of Kruger's sailors to obey the summons to go to Odessa is by no means generally acknowledged. Among others, Admiral Skrydlov openly expressed the opinion that the blue-jackets of Kruger's ships will not fire on their comrades on board the Kniaz Potemkin, but that in the contrary they might join them.

WIRES MAY BE CUT.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Up to a late hour, the State Department has received no cablegram from Odessa regarding the situation there. It is thought that Mr. Keenan, the American Consul at Odessa, has not further reported on the matter, leads to the belief that the wires may have been cut. No request for protection of American property or for warships has been received at the State Department.

LONDON ADVICES.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

LONDON, June 29.—Telegrams received from Odessa by ship owners in London and Liverpool confirm the reports of the state of anarchy prevailing in the Russian city yesterday.

The British steamers and the remainder of the fleet are being kept quiet today. No British steamers were damaged, and so far as known, no British subjects were injured during the rioting.

FOURTY THOUSAND TROOPS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29, 4:50 p. m.—There are about 40,000 troops of all arms at Odessa, but there are no fortifications in which they could stand a siege if the rioters and mariners got the upper hand.

The Russians of Odessa comprise scarcely one-third of the 600,000 inhabitants of the city, about 150,000 people of the residents being Jews and the remainder Greeks, Armenians, Turks and people of various European nationalities. In general, the members of the lower classes are persons of the most desperate character.

The public here partly has a suspicion of the grave events occurring at Odessa, but the radicals are spreading the news diligently.

Insiders sold heavily on the bourse today, but on the other hand, rumors that something was wrong got abroad and prices fell sharply.

AUTHORITIES GET BUSY.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29, 2:45 p. m.—Gen. Kanakhoff, commander of the military district of Odessa, has been empowered to declare martial law, and Vice-Admiral Choukhin, commander of the Black Sea fleet, left St. Petersburg yesterday for Odessa. It is impossible to affirm exactly what steps are known to have been taken to meet the emergency. Admiral Avdeyev was summoned to Peterhoff this morning to discuss the situation with the Emperor.

Such advice as the government has received are carefully withheld. The wires are in control of the authorities and appeals sent to the Associated Press correspondent at Odessa to telegraph what has happened since last night have met with no response up to noon.

TROOPS REFUSE TO FIRE.

Nickoloff, a neighboring town of the littoral, is reported in possession of a mob.

St. Petersburg, in view of the disturbances at Odessa, is filled with stories of disaffection and sedition among the troops, even the guard regiments, it is reported, saying they will not again fire upon the people.

The Cossacks alone, according to the tales, are absolutely reliable. That disaffection and discontent among the soldiers is widespread admits of little doubt, but the situation is hardly as black as painted. Up to the present time, there is no reason to believe that the vast bulk of the army is not loyal. What the effect would be of several regiments going over to the rioters is, however, problematical. Certainly, a crisis seems to have been reached.

BEGIN TO SACK AND PLUNDER.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, June 30, 2:10 a. m.—Dispatches received here from Odessa do not make the situation very clear. Millions of dollars' worth of property, including ships, have been sacked and destroyed. The city is terror-stricken and many, probably hundreds, have been killed or wounded in the street fighting.

The fact that the troops and police made no attempt to interfere with the burial of the martyred sailor is considered evidence that they either felt themselves powerless or feared to make the attempt on account of the attitude of the populace.

Under cover of the darkness produced by the dense pall of smoke hanging over the city, it is reported, the mob has begun to sack and plunder. Foreign property has suffered heavily.

In naval circles the cause of the mutiny on board the Kniaz Potemkin is considered the cause of the severity of the vice-admiral's regime. He is a martinet of a most severe type, and several of his sailors have already been shot for disobedience.

At the time of the mutiny a court-martial was actually in progress at Sebastopol and several of the crew of the battleship had been sentenced by it.

CAPTURED BY A RUSSIAN.

The accepted version in St. Petersburg is that the vessel was captured by a Russian. When she arrived in the city, the sailors came on board.

When he appeared at the gangway he was seized and the boat's crew, being informed of the situation, returned to the ship, and some of the other officers, whom they placed in irons.

Private reports are said to have been received according to which artillery employed against the mutineers, but this has not been confirmed. There is at hand any statement giving the number killed or wounded.

Four submarine boats are moored at quays in the harbor, but a dispatch from Simon Lake says they are under guard and are "yet undamaged."

GENERAL PLOT SUSPECTED.

The mutiny at Libau, following on the heels of the events at Odessa, gave rise to the impression that it might be the result of a general plot among the sailors, but no connection between these happenings has been established.

Up to midnight, the blue-jackets at Kronstadt had made no move to indicate their connection with the plot.

Admiral Skrydlov was of the opinion that the best course would be to allow the crew of the Kniaz Potemkin to remain on board until it had been starved into submission.

In this connection, the story is current that the crew of the battleship captured two English ships loaded with provisions and is holding them along-side.

As far as is known here, Admiral Kruger, although due at Odessa early last evening, had not arrived up to midnight. This gave rise to rumors that the crews had actually seized the other ships of the squadron.

ADMIRAL A HOSTAGE.

ODessa, June 29.—The port admiral offered himself as a hostage on board the Kniaz Potemkin for the safety of the escort and the band sent ashore from the battleship to attend the funeral of Omelchuk and also for the safety of the crew.

EXTENSIVE MOBILIZATION IS ORDERED IN RUSSIA.

Linevitch Has Urgent Need of from One Hundred Thousand to Two Hundred Thousand Men and Troops Will Try to Accommodate Him.

Peace Talk Continues.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The State Department has received a cablegram from Mr. Meyer, the American Ambassador to St. Petersburg, saying that extensive mobilization has been ordered in the districts of Kiev, St. Petersburg, Warsaw and Moscow, because of the necessity of immediately increasing the forces in the Far East. It is expected that, under these orders, between 100,000 and 200,000 men will be called into service.

TREPPOFF LOOKS FOR TROUBLE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All barracks and government structures available in the coming mobilization have been ordered, an operation which will last three weeks. Eighty thousand men from St. Petersburg and the surrounding factory districts will be assembled. A ukase ordering a levy is expected today. It is temporarily withheld until the President and the cabinet make arrangements for the prevention of trouble.

EAR INCLINED TOWARD BAY.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Diplomats in Washington are looking to Oyster Bay for the official announcement with the next few days of the plenipotentiaries who will represent Russia and Japan at the Washington conference.

The President is in communication with the Russian ambassador, and it is learned tonight that progress is being made, but no definite date has been announced is suggested. Mr. Pierce, acting Secretary of State, has conferred with Mr. Darling, acting Secretary of the Navy, and the final settlement of the envoys on board the Mayflower.

ST. KILDA'S OFFICERS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—Russian government officials have informed the British Ambassador Russia's willingness to land the officers of the British steamer St. Kilda, sunk by the Russian cruiser Dnieper, June 5, in the Chile Sea, off Argentina.

but suggests that it might be preferable for them to go to Libau and testify regarding the circumstances of the sinking of the steamer. The government also expressed its willingness to consider the question of compensation for the sinking of the steamer.

A definite decision on this subject must await the result of the hearing before the prize court.

DANISH STEAMERS SUNK.

BATAVIA (Java) June 29.—The Danish steamer Princess Marie was overwhelmed June 23 by the Russian auxiliary cruiser Terek, which, June 5, after the cargo of the Princess Marie had been declared contraband the ship was sunk. Her crew are safe.

[The Princess Marie was last reported at Singapore, Straits Settlement, bound for Japan. She was insured for $500,000 London and there was a large insurance on her cargo.—Associated Press.]

FLASHES FROM THE WIRES.

Emperor William has promoted Admiral von Koster to be grand admiral of the German fleet.

A. L. Patton, a timber buyer for a Jefferson, Or., mill, has been kidnapped and robbed of more than $700.

Patton was one of a party of ten persons who were taken to a house in Pineville, Or., to take up timber claims.

Two members of the party, Mrs. R. F. Myers and Mrs. William Jones, were suffocated in their apartments Wednesday.

The protected cruiser Charleston started from Provincetown, Mass., yesterday on a four hours speed trial at sea. The weather was favorable, the contract requirement calls for a speed of twenty knots an hour.

FIRING ON ODESSA.

Using Full Charges, the Kniaz Potemkin Begins to Blow Holes in the City—Second Mutinous Warship is Reported Close at Hand.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LONDON, June 30.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Daily Mail prints the following from its Odessa correspondent, time 10:40 o'clock Thursday night:

"Using full charges, the Kniaz Potemkin opened fire upon the city this evening. The first shells struck a house in Nyedinskaya street and the second fell on the battery."

"In the walls of buildings, large holes six yards wide by three yards high were torn. So far, there has been no firing."

"The Governor ordered the gas lamps extinguished and the electric current severed, so that the city is in total darkness."

"Large bodies of troops have arrived. It is reported that there are, altogether, 10,000 troops in Odessa."

"This afternoon, a tug-boat arrived with a commission to investigate the condition of affairs and proceeded, flying the Red Cross flag, and reported two warships lying at the harbor entrance and one opposite Cape Fontaine."

"The Daily Telegraph prints the following telegram from Odessa, dated Monday night, June 29:—"

"A second mutinous warship is reported to be at Cape Fontaine, ten miles from here. A dispatch boat with Russian and Lithuanian sailors and a Russian steamer were held up by the Kniaz Potemkin at 5 o'clock and compelled to tie up under her guns for twenty-four hours. At 7 o'clock, the rebel battleship steamed two miles off, but shortly afterward returned to her former anchorage and fired several shots at the suburb of Odessa, which there is a detachment of Cossacks. She then swung around until her guns pointed to the center of Odessa and fired a blank cartridge."

"A steamer which the Kniaz Potemkin stopped was seen to burst into flames."

"A bomb thrown in a street this evening killed six persons. The city jail in which there are 2000 prisoners, had a narrow escape from being blown to pieces last night. Five men had just succeeded in escaping."

NEGROES SHOT DOWN BY MOB.Wholesale Slaughter Just Outside Georgia Jail.Black Men Lined up Against Fence and Then Riddled.A Ninth Victim Drops With Other Eight and Escapes.

WATKINSVILLE (Ga.) June 20.—
Nine prisoners were taken from the jail
here this morning and eight of them were shot to death by a mob of masked men, within two hundred yards of the center of the town.The names of the prisoners killed are Louis Robertson, Rich Robinson, Sandy
Price, Claude Elder, Bob Harris, Jim Yearly, Rich Allen, all negroes; and Len Aycock, white.Joe Patterson, negro, feigned death
and the mob left him, thinking he, too, had been riddled with bullets.Four of the prisoners were charged with being implicated in the murder of Holbrook and his wife, several weeks ago, and one was held for attempting criminal assault. The others were in jail on minor charges.The mob formed just after midnight
and marched to the jail, where the keys were demanded. The demand was made at the point of rifles, and the jailer realized that resistance was useless.With the keys in their possession, the mob opened all the cells and ordered the inmates out and then lined them up, in single file, tying them with ropes.The prisoners were marched to a corral lot within 200 yards of the jail and in the heart of the town, where they were bound to a fence with their hands behind them. The work had been done quickly and the mob was identical of the town had not been aroused.At a command by the leader, the mob stepped back a few paces, took deliberate aim and fired a volley from rifles, shotguns and pistols into the line of prisoners. Every man in front of the mob fell at the first volley.Believing the work had been made complete, the mob quickly dispersed.
An examination by the jailer, who had been forced by the mob to accompany it to the scene of the execution, showed that eight of the men had been riddled with bullets, but Joe Patterson was found to have been only slightly injured.

HIS ESCAPE A MIRACLE.

Patterson's escape from death was almost a miracle, for the fence post to which he was bound was torn into fragments by the bullets. He possessed the presence of mind to fall with his ill-fated companions and remain motionless upon the ground.
The rattle of the volley aroused theSAFE CRACKERS TAKE AWAY THOUSANDS.SANTA MONICA, June 20.—Robbers
entered the Santa Monica postoffice at about 2 o'clock this morning and made a successful raid on the safe, getting away with the entire contents. The job netted them $200 in cash, $200.10 in stamps of all denominations, seven registered letters of unknown value, and a general assortment of vouchers of paid money orders, receipts, and other documents
of no value except to the postoffice department.
The robbers may have been secreted
in the lobby when the nightwatchman locked the front door between 1 and 2o'clock. They entered the postmaster's quarters by forcibly raising the general-delivery window and also by forcing the door. The door casing shows the impress of chisels. Thelock is of the spring pattern and by inserting a chisel at the proper place the bolt may easily be pushed out ofthe way. The safe, a small one of the Moser pattern, stands near the door that leads into the lobby, and with acurtain drawn over the front window anyone passing on Third street could not see into the postoffice. The workwas therefore carried on with little likelihood of interruption.
The blacksmith shop of W. C. Wil son on Third street had been burglar

ized during the night and a sledge hammer, brace and drill stolen. Thisdiscovery was made this morning and the tools that were not doubt used in opening the safe. There was ahalf-inch hole drilled through the door into the compartment that holds the combination and tumblers of the lock.

Into this hole a steel punch was in serted and given a hard blow with the muffled sledge. The result was the shattering of the lock so that the door town. Scores of citizens sprang from their beds to find the mob nowhere in evidence, however.

The strength of the mob has been va riously estimated. The jailer says that there were many armed men, all wearing masks. He said he delivered the keys to the mob, believing it was better to do that than to resist, which, he was told, would mean the dynamiting of the prison.

Sandy Price was charged by Mrs.

Weldon Dooley, who lives in the sub urbs of Watkinville, with having at tempted criminal assault Wednesday afternoon.No further trouble is anticipated.

Only one negro was left in the jail,
and he was a gambler who escaped thenotice of the mob.
Aycock, the white man, protested hisinnocence to the last. A. W. Wasford was the mob in the streets and begged for the life of Aycock, as there wasdoubt as to his guilt. Jailer Grow also begged for Aycock's life and the livesof three or four negroes.
The immediate cause of the outbreakwas the attempt of Price to assault
Mrs. Weldon Dooley in the suburbs of Watkinville, last Tuesday.The crime which led primarily to the lynching was the murder of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Holbrook, at their homenear Watkinville, a few months since.
Their store was robbed. Three negroes confessed to the crime and implicated

Aycock.

Every effort is being made to arrest
the members of the mob. The identity of none of them is known, however.SOLDIERS MAKE MONEY.
COUNTERFEITING IN HONOLULU.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)HONOLULU, June 20.—United States
Marshal E. R. Hendry has arrested four soldiers belonging to the Twentyfourth Regiment of Coast Artillery, charged with counterfeiting and passing spurious gold coin. The Marshal alsoseized a gold-plating machine believed to have been used by the counterfeiters.
The coins alleged to have been made illegally are $5 and $10 pieces. The ma terials used were lead and copper, plated with gold. An excellent die was used, but the coins are light and lack thering of the genuine gold pieces. A number of them, believed to have been passed in the Japanese quarter,reached a local bank Saturday. An investigation was immediately begun by United States Attorney R. W.Brecken, and the arrests followed.

The men in custody are J. N. Cooper, who had the gold plates in his posses sion; Thos. Wilson, charged with pass ing the bogus money; James Jackson,

on whom was found a spurious $10

piece, and J. Longley, who was ar rested on suspicion.

The investigation is being continued.

Efforts to locate and obtain possession of the die which was used by the coun

terfeiters have as yet been unsuccess ful.

THIEVES LEAVE GILDED STONES.

BIG SENSATION IN MUSEUM.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, June 20.—Thieves are reported to have been systematically at work for months among exhibits in

the American Museum of Natural His tory in this city.

Specimens of gold ores of the great

Bement collection, presented to the in stitution by J. Pierpont Morgan, valued at $2000, have been stolen and in stead cheaper ones substituted. Artifi cially-gilded lumps of coal and stone

are said to have been left in place of the loot.

A Siberian collection of implementsand garments has been deprived of some of its best examples, and manyvaluable specimens are missing from the butterfly cases.The theft took place near the alcove in which is a collection of American gems valued at $200,000, also given tothe museum by Morgan.
Altogether, twenty of the finest specimens of gold ores in the world are missing.
Extraordinary precautions are nowbeing taken by the museum officials to protect the exhibits, many of which have been overhauled and rearranged

so that they may be better guarded.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

PRETTY romance was consummated last evening when Miss Elizabeth Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. S. Pratt, formerly of Los Angeles, was married to Dr. Charles J. Beers, of the same city, by Rev. Robert McIntyre, uncle of the bride.

The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Z. S. Pratt, at 1033 Alhambra street, the pretty bride being attended by her bridesmaid, Miss Clara Vickers, and her maid of honor, Miss Clara Vickers. The ceremony was a simple one, and the bride and groom were married in the presence of a few friends. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom wore a suit of dark cloth and carried a sword. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. Robert McIntyre, uncle of the bride.

ing incident recently. After the wedding the couple will go to Portland and on their return visit Oakland and Santa Barbara, where the groom will take part in a Maccabee drill to be given there, being first sergeant in the uniform rank of the Maccabees.

Military Whist Party.
A unique entertainment was given by Percy H. Douglas at his residence, No. 3015 East Fifth street, Euclid Heights, Tuesday evening. The invitations were issued in military form, military whist being played. Refreshments, consisting of hardtack, army beans and coffee, were served. Prizes were won by the following, representing Norway and Sweden: Miss B. H. Hancock, C. C. Bailey, T. G. Brewer and Viggo Lerche. Those present were: Misses E. Reading, C. D. Barry, C. Perkins, H. Richmond, William Bell, D. A. Judd, Misses P. B. Judd, Edith Loomis, Belle Shields, Hattie Rathburn, A. M. Holleran, H. B. Hancock, Mabel L. Forbush and Messrs. R. P. Falstaff, H. Barry, C. Perkins, R. B. Hayes, H. Richmond, T. G. Brewer, H. M. Thomson, W. L. Bell, Adrian Bell, Viggo Lerche, J. C. Graves, J. Holleran, D. A. Judd, C. Neburn, F. Birkhauser, H. P. Lee, G. J. Lingenfelder and C. C. Bailey.

For Fair Bride-ale.
Miss Leontine Denker was guest of honor at a card party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. C. F. A. Last of No. 742 Bonnie Brae street, nearly fifty guests being entertained. The parlors were decorated with pink hearts and cupid and tartelet bows, the flowers being arranged in baskets and vases about the room, while pink hearts and cupid hung here and there fastened with fancy tulle bows. Scores were marked on dainty cards adorned with water-color sketches of cupid and tartelet bows. The winning contestants were awarded the winning contestants. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. W. S. Cross and the Misses Clara and Jean Severns.

Returns from Yosemite.
Mrs. Hancock, of No. 418 North Broadway, has returned after a two months' trip in the north, where she went for her health. She visited Yosemite Valley and other resorts while away.

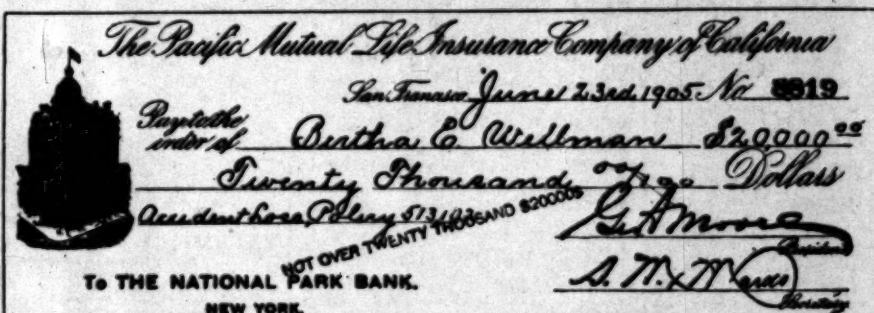

To Wed on Sunday.
Miss Helen W. Cooper, daughter of Mr. Florence I. Cooper of No. 3414 South Union avenue, and Frank Burritt are to be married on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The wedding will be without display, owing to the illness of the bride's little sister, Mabel Cooper, who was the victim of a shoot-

The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California

Pays a $20,000 Policy

To the widow of Chas. H. Wellman within three days after his untimely death in the horrifying wreck of the Twentieth Century Limited, June 21st.

The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, seeing the name of C. H. Wellman, of Lakewood, Ohio, Manager of the Wellman-Seaver Engineering Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, among the list of killed in the wreck of the Twentieth Century Limited, which occurred on the night of June 21st, did not wait for notification of death from the family but at once proceeded to settle the sad account, and sends to the beneficiary, Bertha E. Wellman, his widow, a draft for $20,000, a facsimile of same being here reproduced.

Such a record of payment of an accident policy is unparalleled. This alert, progressive California company, 800 miles away, through its own system of identification, is enabled to secure absolute proof, complete its thorough check of identification and send its draft in three days from the date of the accident.

Mr. Wellman had faith in the stability and reliability of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California, and four years ago signed an application for a combination accident policy. On this policy he had paid $6 a year—a total of $240. Mr. Wellman had already benefited to the extent of $15 because of a slight injury previous to his late terrible and fatal accident; consequently he and his family have received the great monetary benefit of $20,000 for the small insurance premium of $240.

The above tells a wonderful story of a man's frugality and care for his family. It tells a story of admonition.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Olympians Will Sing.

The Olympians, who have made the journey around the world in evangelistic work, will give a service of sacred song this evening in the Central-avenue Methodist Church, at Verbena.

Missionary to Angel.

Mrs. Hoar, one of the best-known missionaries of the Episcopal Church, left last night for San Francisco on her way to her new post at Angel, away up on the Tuolumne River. A number of her co-workers and admirers were at the depot to see her off.

Horse Trainer's Waterloo.

"Prof." R. H. Tapp, an old-time horse trainer of notoriety and fame, met his Waterloo yesterday in a bronco at the Alhambra street racetrack. It was him tangled up in a rope and skinned him so badly that he had to be sent to the Receiving Hospital.

Country Fair Tonight.

The Young Men's Club of Boyle Heights will give a country fair this evening in their clubrooms, at First and Cummins streets. Many amusing features are to be shown, and the Pumpkin Center Band will give a musical program. Refreshments will be served.

Another "Blind Pig."

P. Cravia and T. Salvetto, two Ninth-street booze dispensers, fell into Capt. Auble's dragnet for blind pigs yesterday afternoon, and were arrested on charges of having violated the liquor ordinance. They were released on bail in the sum of $100 each. Both are said to be old offenders.

A.O.U.W. at Burbank.

The Ancient Order of United Workmen will have a special night at the Burbank theatre tonight, given by Southern California Lodge No. 191, in honor of William Desmond, Willis Marks and others, who are members of the fraternity. After the play, a banquet will be given at the Café Bristol.

July Weather.

Data compiled at the Los Angeles Weather Bureau based on the local records for twenty-eight years for the month of July shows a mean temperature of 71 deg. The average number of clear days was twelve, and of partly cloudy eighteen. The average hourly velocity of the wind was four miles, and the greatest velocity at any time was twenty-four miles.

Smith Was "Rolled."

W. S. Smith of No. 877 1/2 South Spring street sagged along the streets with two strangers last evening, and bent his elbow so often in the places where the doors swing both ways, that he finally fell dizzy, and when his two companions suggested a little nap in a Broadway livery, he acquiesced. Arrived at the barn, Smith says, his quondam friends knocked him down and robbed him of $50.

He's Docile Now.

T. Harry Jones, a negro who says he is a "writer" for a San Francisco newspaper, ran amuck with a revolver in his hands in a restaurant at No. 519 East First street early last evening, and threatened to kill the wife of the proprietor. He was promptly thrown out. He ran along First street waving his revolver until the police got him. Then he was jailed on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Masher Was Broke.

John Potter, a well-dressed man, hauled in Central Park last night because he had been the place was a veritable "Lover's Lane." Every woman in the park looked so fetching to Potter that he made goo-goo eyes promiscuously until Park keeper Shibley's attention was attracted by the would-be masher. Forthwith Potter was taken to jail. When searched at the Police Station Potter did not possess a cent.

Prohibition Alliance.

The Boyle Heights Prohibition Alliance met last night at the home of Alfred Judson, No. 2524 East Second street. A literary and musical program was given, and an address was made by Rev. J. N. Lacombe on "Objections to Prohibition Answered." The speaker declared that the present liquor-license law is a species of prohibition. After the programme refreshments were served, and an hour was spent in general social intercourse.

Wonderful Mabel Cooper.

Little Mabel Cooper, the child who lies at the Children's Hospital with a charge of shot in her brain, continues to upset all the preconceptions of the physicians and surgeons by gaining strength daily. Her temperature is almost normal, her appetite is good, and she has retained consciousness since she first recovered her mind, and takes an active interest in her surroundings. The arrangements for her sister's wedding, which had been planned before the accident occurred, proceed as arranged, and declare she will get up and go to the ceremony next Sunday.

His Story Discredited.

Emmanuel de Vieg of No. 597 South Spring street walked into the County Hospital at 2:20 o'clock last night, and hysterically shrieked: "I've been robbed." Then he swooned. De Vieg says he was strolling in Eastlake Park, when he stumbled and fell. He was pounced upon by footpads and robbed of a key to the store—and a silver watch. When the victim reached the hospital he was suffering from nervous shock. Detectives investigated the alleged hold-up, but were not favorably impressed with the man's account. He apparently had been drinking.

BREVITIES.

The volume of "Liners" in the Sunday Times has become so great that it is found necessary to ask patrons to get their Sunday advertisements in earlier, especially Sunday real estate announcements, which in order to be printed must be in the office not later than 10 o'clock Saturday night. The printing of all real estate matter, including advertisements, in a part by itself on Sundays involves somewhat slower press work, making it essential, in order to get the paper out on time, to stop receiving real estate ads at 10 o'clock Saturday night. Dealers will confer a favor on The Times office if they will turn in Sunday copy on Fridays, when possible; or at least a part of it, and the balance early on Saturday. Sunday "Want" ads will still be received by phone and over the counter until 11 o'clock Saturday night.

Kranich and Bach Pianos

are art creations in the highest sense of the term.

The materials and processes of manufacture in the Kranich & Bach are far more costly than those in any other instrument selling for the same price; and this instrument is made entirely in one factory—which can be truly said of no other piano—the Steinway.

The Kranich & Bach presents a new musical effect, a new range, upon a scale differing from other pianos. And the Kranich & Bach tone is not an intangible element, understood only by people of high musical culture, but is intensely human in its appeal—full of romance and sentiment.

Kranich & Bach Pianos are remarkable as well for the beauty of their exterior—artistic and up-to-date in design, and superbly finished.

MATRONLY BEAUTIES IN FANCY'S REALM.

THE fitting finish of a beautiful club year will be the morning of impersonation given today at the Friday Morning Club.

To the credit of the chairman of the Programme Committee and the officers and board members, there have been many fine offerings at the club during the season, and the finale of today will be especially striking and picturesque.

Every club member will impersonate something, a book, a person, or whatever may take her fancy, and several notable groups are among them.

The grand march will be led by Mrs. J. B. Lippincott and Dr. Jordan at the head of a group of the dearest

Mrs. E. K. Foster to be installed today as president of the Friday Morning Club.

Cranford ladies ever seen outside of that fascinating book, Mrs. Lippincott will be crowned in her mother's wedding dress of ancient pattern, which she brought with her across the continent as one of her treasured possessions. The Cranford ladies in charge of this group, and who will be crowned in many historic frocks of a day ago, are: Misses, Severance, Rebecca, Spring, H. B. Ashley, Margaret Collier, Graham, Shelley Tolhurst, E. K. Foster, Ella H. Enderlein, George Wadleigh, T. W. Brown, B. C. Whitting, Cornelius Cole, Juana Neal, I. W. Phelps, E. G. Smead, H. W. Kimball, L. B. Toney, W. A. Spaulding, F. A. Jenkins, Kate Ranby, S. A. Woodcock, George North, Lucy Snedeker, Burton Williamson, W. W. Murphy, Fred Foy, W. C. Patterson, Judson, Stevens, M. E. Jordan, and Misses Collier and Amelia Smead.

The stately measures of the minuet will be trod by a group of eight beautiful colonial ladies, with high powdered coifs and quilted petticoats and pinnies. These will be led by Mrs. W. D. Babcock and are: Misses, Edgar Swaine, Baltimore, W. D. Turner, F. R. Frost, Matthew Robertson, John Kahn and G. Shepherd, Eastum.

One of the prettiest features of the entire day is to be a certain flower fantasy arranged by Miss Nelly Stevens, and which is a rare bit of woodland joy and lightness introduced with its flower people and birds.

DELAY ON GREAT TEMPLE.
City's Building Ordinance Interferes Temporarily With Progress of Auditorium Contracts.

Thus early in the history of the famous Temple Auditorium—the structure which is to help Los Angeles win many great national gatherings, and which will doubtless be the setting for many a scene of great importance—the directors of the Temple Auditorium Association have found their path strewn with difficulties.

Chief of these has been the city's building ordinance, which doesn't coincide with the plans adopted by the association for its great building. The difficulty is in the matter of exits from the second floor or gallery, and this has caused a delay in the letting of contracts.

C. E. Harris, an officer of the Auditorium company, said last night that he believes the difficulties will be solved today, when a special hearing is to be had before the members of the City Council. He says the company has secured the endorsement of its plans from numerous prominent architects of this city, and that several of the Councilmen have declared in favor of the plans, which cannot satisfactorily be altered.

While the ordinance is violated, technically, by these plans, Mr. Harris claims the violation is not a matter of practical importance, and he believes the city council will give the Auditorium assurance that the ordinance will be so modified as to allow of the adopted plans being carried out. A special committee will present the case.

Meanwhile the old Hazard Pavilion has practically disappeared, and daily

Forty-one Los Angeles Applicants Pass "Exam."

Right on the heels of a scandal that is to be the subject of an official investigation, the State Board of Dental Examiners has run up against a snag in Los Angeles, in the form of a threatened suit for heavy damages by Dr. S. O. Schaefer, who was arrested Monday on a charge of practicing dentistry without a license, but the action against whom was dismissed on the following day in the Justice Court, when it was shown that an error had been made.

Members of the board say they believe the threatened suit is a "bluff," that they made proper apology to Schaefer and that, should the case get into the courts, it would be thrown out for lack of cause for action.

Schaefer has prepared his complaint, however, and it is declared by his attorney that it will be pushed.

The trouble all arose through a mistake of officers employed by the board to find and arrest one John Doe Schaefer, who, it was alleged, was practicing dentistry without a license.

The officers swooped down on Dr. Schaefer, who is a member of the Schaefer Dental Company, and arrested him at the offices of that company, No. 107 North Spring street.

Schaefer complains that he was disrespected and humiliated in the presence of a large number of clients at that office and later dragged through the streets in the custody of a police officer, without any excuse or probable cause.

It is declared by Dr. Schaefer that at the time of his arrest, his license to practice hung on the wall of his office, in full view of the officers.

Wherefore, the dentist represents that he is entitled to $50,000 damages for the damage to his reputation, naming the members of the State board individually and collectively, and the officers who arrested him, William Shands and P. J. Vigilant.

ADMITS IT WAS ERROR.
"A mistake was made in the case of Dr. Schaefer," said Dr. Herrick, secretary of the board, last night, "but the board did everything in its power to rectify the error. The members apologized to the dentist, when he appeared before them, and the apologies were made a part of the record."

"The error arose through the misunderstanding of the name," said Dr. E. B. Howard, treasurer of the board, and the Los Angeles member thereof. "The members of the board regretted the mistake and did what was necessary to make amends. It was supposed that Dr. Schaefer had accepted the apology tendered him."

Other members of the board professed to believe that Schaefer had no intention of pressing the threatened suit, saying that similar mistakes have been made before, and that the board is not liable for the trouble, that may have been caused.

Members of the dental profession who have accused the dentist of "ethical" practitioners by advertising their business, declare, however, that the arrest was made to harass one of their number, and that the board would not be taken against an unlicensed dentist, provided he was "ethical" and refrained from the use of printer's ink and billboards.

Furthermore, they point to the fact that Dr. Schaefer, far from being unlicensed, is a member of the board of the board that caused his arrest, and that there was no excuse for the mistake.

TWO LICENSES SUSPENDED.
At its meeting yesterday, the State Board of Dental Examiners disposed of the charges against two dentists accused of employing unlicensed assistants, suspending temporarily the licenses of the accused; passed upon the names of the names of the successful Los Angeles applicants for licenses, and handled other business of a routine nature.

The licenses of these dentists are suspended for thirty days, beginning July 5, the charges being that each had in his employ one assistant, who was not provided with a license.

It happens that both Kriebbaum and Covington have offended the board members by advertising, although nothing to do with their suspension.

Through the fact that serious charges have been made verbally by certain members of the board to the effect that examination questions were given at San Francisco in advance of the examination there, the board, although it is not to have reached a conclusion as to the standing of the eighty-four applicants in the northern city, declined to make the names of the successful ones public.

Publication of these names will be a strong effort to have it built up, in the commission appointed by the Governor to examine into the charges has completed its work. This investigation, it is expected, will not be held for at least one month.

Forty-one of the fifty-four applicants who took the examination in Los Angeles succeeded in obtaining satisfactory marks on their papers and on their clinical work. The excellent showing made by the local applicants was commended highly by all members of the board.

THOSE WHO PASSED.
The successful applicants, who now are entitled to practice dentistry in the State, are as follows: C. A. Allen, W. H. E. Anderson, B. C. Arnold, A. S. Bailey, I. F. Baldwin, A. B. Bell, W. S. Beasley, H. E. Brown, H. G. Brown, H. E. Chase, M. M. Dixon, W. E. Dobson, George H. Flinders, W. G. Gates, P. A. Gooden, J. E. Goodman, G. A. Gooden, J. L. Gresham, J. E. Guthrie, R. H. Hallock, T. P. Harrell, C. E. Heesman, N. G. Higby, W. W. Homan, E. C. Hyde, A. E. Irving, A. H. Jensen, L. A. Lauer, A. B. Leavelle, C. E. Markey, E. S. Metzger, T. H. Morgan, G. N. Mosher, R. E. Neel, P. H. O'Connor, H. E. Ransom, S. E. Salsburg, H. B. Shepherd, H. A. Smith, E. F. K. Sparks, Charles B. Stare.

SURPRISE WEDDING.

Mrs. May Carson Becomes Bride of E. W. Sargent, Ceremony Taking Place in San Francisco.

Vows of matrimony were taken last night at 8:30 o'clock by Mrs. May Carson, a charming widow of this city, and E. W. Sargent, one of the best-known local business men, and vice-president of the Title Guaranty and Trust Company, as they stood in the presence of a company of about a score of friends in the parlors of the Grand Hotel, San Francisco.

The bride was dressed in a handsome green cloth traveling suit, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of maidenhair ferns and white sweet peas. The ring ceremony was used. After the wedding service a supper was served to the guests in a prettily-decorated private dining-room.

The wedding of a complete surprise to friends of both principals. Even their closest associates were not aware when the northern trip was planned that its denouement would be a wedding at San Francisco.

Mrs. Carson and Miss Maude Lammman Sargent, daughter of Mr. Sargent, a prominent local business man, were married in the parlors of the Grand Hotel, San Francisco, last night.

They met at the Grand, and a few friends in that city, who had been let into the secret, gathered to do honor to the bride and groom.

Today Mr. and Mrs. Sargent and Miss Sargent will proceed northward on their journey. They will visit Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and the Lewis and Clark Exposition, and then will proceed to British Columbia, where they will pass two weeks. They expect to be absent from Los Angeles about five weeks.

Mrs. Sargent is an old-time acquaintance of her husband, as they were neighbors years ago in Racine, Wis. Later she removed to Chicago, and Mr. Sargent came "to Los Angeles," where he has been a prominent figure in commercial and financial circles for several years. Mrs. Carson came here about three years ago, and the old acquaintance was renewed and ripened into mutual affection.

Mr. Sargent has purchased a residence on St. Paul street, and it will be occupied as their home soon after their return.

MAKING COOL WAR PLANS.

Club Women Collecting Data for Library Fight—Miss Jones Walks Through Lockout.

The library controversy, of which everyone is getting tired, dwindled at the City Hall yesterday.

Miss Jones, in spite of the lockout ordered by the directors, a "sneak" as usual and attended to business. She had a conference with City Attorney Mathews and then went to the library. She asked for Miss Gleason, and learning that she was in the forbidden directors' room, walked boldly through the lock-out.

Club women, instead of making any more invasions of the City Hall, are collecting letters and testimonials from authoritative sources relative to Miss Jones's record as public librarian. These will be presented to the City Council.

Mayor McAlister announced yesterday that he will try to arrange his meeting with Miss Jones in his office some time next week.

The club women have settled down to a cleverly-planned, cool programme of battle.

The fact is, that, at the present time, matters are practically at a standstill, with Miss Jones serenely declining to be ousted, and Mr. Lummis dallying with the fishes in the wilderness, where there are no crowded bookshelves.

LATEST PARK PLANS.

Commissioners Go on Trip of Inspection—To Make Griffith Park More Accessible.

Probably Los Angeles never has had a Park Commission with the welfare and improvement of the city parks more closely at heart than the present board, and Mayor McAlister is an enthusiast on the subject. Yesterday the Mayor and members of the commission, with Superintendent Morley and Engineer J. R. Lippincott went on a tour of inspection of Griffith Park in a trolley, taking a few friends along. The entrance was made by way of Calaveras Pass and the Wildcat Pass road and was quite exciting, owing to the many "low bridges" encountered en route.

With money at hand, the park authorities are making plans to make it a joy forever to the thousands within our gates as well as to the thousands who visit us. The travel to the park is increasing rapidly. A register is now kept, and hundreds of names are entered every week. Last Saturday there were 130 registrations and yesterday nearly as many, including two large picnic parties. Although the long haul necessary for water has operated against them, the 25,000 little trees contributed by the United States Forestry have been planted better than was expected, and a large percentage of them are growing well. Mayor McAlister declares that the United States government has done more for the park than the city has. With a short road leading to the forest-clad retreat, thousands of strollers will be able to enjoy it daily, instead of hundreds, and it will furnish an ideal resort for auto-mobilists. There could not be imagined a more refreshing change for city dwellers than a day amid the trees and blossoms and birds of this wonderful park, breathing the fragrance that exhales from every leaf that is trampled on, and feasting the eye on the works that nature has fashioned here on a grand scheme of picturesque beauty. It will be a happy day for Los Angeles when the new road is built—and if Mayor McAlister and Dr. Lamb and the other commissioners have their way, that day will not be far off.

SPIRIT FINGER GEM ADORNED?

Spook-factory Ghost Steals Pretty Diamond.

Mrs. Arnold Loses Control Over Her Doris.

Duped Woman Asks Arrest of the "Medium."

Because a young ghost who works at her spook factory stole a diamond ring, a warrant is out for Mrs. O. R. Arnold, a well-known, handsome, and very raw specimen of the genus "medium."

City Prosecutor Beebe is unable to believe "twas the ghost."

The complainant who had the misfortune to be "touched" for her ring by the spirits of the Vasty Deep is Mrs. Jennie Fields of Darwin avenue, wife of a saloon keeper.

Her's would be an exceedingly ridiculous story were it not so pitiful.

Her health had been failing and her physicians were afraid she was going into consumption.

As nothing they had to give seemed to help her much, she turned in despair, as women do, to the supernatural. She fell into the hands of the Arnolds.

They were living at that time at No. 1018 West Thirty-sixth street. There were two of them, the husband and wife. They are about the smoothest articles in the business. Mrs. Arnold is a pretty woman with soft, kitty manners, and a disinterested air of being but a humble mouthpiece for her "spirit friends."

This poor, frightened woman was an easy mark for them. They took her in to the "darkened" little back room and pumped "hot air" into her by the barrel.

DORIS AT THE RIVER.
They used to sit around a little library table with the lights turned as low that only a spark would be left, and hold hands. Arnold sat on one side and his wife on the other.

They would sit for a long time in silence and darkness, Arnold acting very much bored, and his wife purring pretty nothings to the spirit friends.

"Won't you come to us, spirit friends," at which Arnold would grunt dispassionately, as though to urge her to come through with the guff and have done with it.

Then Mrs. Arnold would suggest that they sing "Shall We Gather at the River." As if in protest to their gathering at the river, the sweet, sad, dolorous squall would be interrupted in the middle by a little breathless whisper, and the tin horn which had been placed suggestively and appropriately on the table would sail off into space.

"Is that you, Doris, darling?" Mrs. Arnold would ask, pleadingly, and Doris would answer in a whisper "Yes, yes, yes, how 'ye do'."

Then they were off in a bunch. Arnold always acted sort of sheepish. But the poor sick woman clung to every word.

Doris kept telling her in a lilting baby whisper that she would be well by and by. She told her the sweet, sad, dolorous squall would be interrupted by putting into a circle and feeding charcoal made of dead monkey bones with impressive hoodoo words.

It was in October, when Doris first went to the Arnolds; she kept up her visits for months. Sometimes she had pitiful misgivings which she told them, in a half apologetic way, for the pleasure of hearing them jolly her out of them. To have Doris reassure her.

But it was a long time before treatment was not doing any good. She told them flatly at last.

GEM A HOODOO.
As her thin hands lay on the table before her, they were weighted with rings, one a handsome white solitaire diamond.

Mrs. Arnold's eyes wavered greedily from the sick woman's face to the diamond.

"W-e-e-l-l," she said, slowly. And then told her what she had been holding back so as not to hurt her feelings. That ring was a hoodoo. About it there is a sort of baneful halo. To be plain, the old injun was dead more at that ring; even Doris was rather leary of it.

Mrs. Fields was bewildered at first by this bitter news, but good kind Mrs. Arnold finally thought and apparently it. She bravely offered to take the ring herself and keep it for Mrs. Fields, hoodoo and all. The sickly woman was only too glad and grateful to take advantage of such a liberal and self-sacrificing offer: the ring passed into the possession of the medium.

The treatments went on for a long time. At last, however, the wool was lifted from the sick woman's eyes; she saw that she was being faked. She broke with the Arnolds and demanded her ring back.

The medium told her that she was very sorry that she could not give it back; the spirits had taken it away with them. Presumably Doris had wiped it off and was making the hit of her spirit life with it.

Mrs. Fields carried her story to her lawyer, George M. Holton, Esq., who couldn't be made to believe that ghosts can take diamond rings.

In order to get the case into the petty larceny category, the value of the ring was placed at $50, but the fact is it exceeds that amount.

Officers went to Mrs. Arnold's Thirty-sixth-street home yesterday but could not find her. She has not lived there for a month or more.

THREE BEFORE.
The Arnolds have achieved notoriety before. They got into trouble because it was discovered that they were working a stock deal. The man got control of a block of cheap mining stock. The spirits, through Mrs. Arnold, would tell sitters that they would shortly make a fortune in mines; next day a visit from Broderick Arnold with the opportunity in the shape of stock.

On another occasion they were put to some embarrassment by the arrest of a discredited newspaper man who said that he had manufactured all their apparatus. Doris and all.

BANKRUPT FIREMAN.
William W. Burton, a fireman, pleaded bankruptcy before Judge Wolf yesterday. Burton says forth that he owes $225.50, and has $10 worth of household goods as his only assets.

PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

At the City Hall yesterday the Finance Committee listened to long-winded arguments of labor-unionists who want a board of examiners for journeymen electricians, and would elect contractors working for themselves.

No one has heretofore been blamed for the automobile accident that resulted in Miss Mina Rudolph and Humphrey Praed being thrown into a ditch last fall and the latter killed, but yesterday C. S. Fry, who was one of the occupants of the machine, began suit against E. R. Werdin, as Superintendent of Streets.

The San Pedro gamblers all pleaded guilty yesterday, and were fined by Justice Young.

AT THE CITY HALL.

ELECTRICIANS ARE AT IT NOW.

UNION FOR SCHEME ONCE BEFORE TURNED DOWN.

Wants Board of Examiners and License for Wiremen—Would Prevent Contractors Working for Themselves—License Likely to be Repealed.

A delegation from the Electrical Workers' Union appeared before the Finance Committee of the City Council yesterday, asking for the adoption of an ordinance requiring every electrical wireman or workman in any capacity as an electrician, to pass an examination and be licensed by a board consisting of one man representing the city electrical department, one representing the contractors, and a third the journeymen wiremen.

The same proposition was made by the union plumbers when the new building ordinance was adopted, but it was turned down because its effect would be to prevent a contractor from doing work for himself.

As a sop to induce the contractors to withhold objections to their plan for licensing journeymen, the union proposed also the repeal of the present license of $100 a year on contractors. While the latter would be glad enough to have this done, they do not want it done at the expense of having all their workmen compelled to pass the proposed examination, for it would undoubtedly result in the complete domination of the union in all electrical construction and would handicap the independent contractors.

The union speakers made much of how it would reduce the fire risk and make insurance rates lower, but the City Electrician declared that if the license were $1000 or nothing, it would not have the slightest effect on the insurance rates or in making the fire hazard less.

M. S. Culver, the principal spouter for the union, went on at some length to prove that the adoption of their plan would actually make the city grow by inducing capitalists to come here and put up buildings, because their wiring would be done by licensed wiremen. Just for a moment consider how the city has been going into decay during the past fifteen years, because there has been no such thing here as examination of men who want to string wires.

Culver also expatiated on the evil of having Christmas window decorations put in by private electricians in employment of the stores instead of by licensed men.

The talk went on for more than an hour, with no signs of cessation as the subject was anything but hot, and the subject was finally laid over for future action.

It is likely that the license paid by contractors will be repealed, because it appears to be unequal, but the examination and licensing of wiremen will just as surely stay in the wake of the same plan for plumbers.

IN POLICE COURT.

FOLLOWED HIS LADY LOVE.

Anado Fernandez, a young Mexican, was given thirty days by Justice Austin yesterday for disturbing the peace of his lady love, Jesus Bejarano. She had left the home where they had been living together and gone back to stay with her mother. Anado met her on the street, while she and her mother were on the way to the theater, and followed them down the street, remonstrating with her for her faithlessness. At the theater, he blocked the way, refusing to let her go in. When she had him arrested he swore he would "fix" her when he got out.

Byrne Black Fight.

William Starbuck, who gave a terrible beating to H. E. Miller in an office in the Byrne Block, was fined $50 in the Police Court yesterday.

Wanted Wife's Money.

E. C. Gilman was fined $5 yesterday for breaking a Fifth-street restaurant where his wife worked as a dishwasher, and raising a rough house, because she wouldn't give him money.

Romantic Eugenio.

All the old-time novels used to have Eugenio a manly, dark-eyed, languorous creature for hero; he was in real life in the Police Court yesterday. For nearly beating the life out of his wife!

His other name was Abila. Out near Whittier he lived with her, a woman much older than himself. They fell out over money matters. Handsome, dark-eyed, music-voiced Eugenio, with his manly bearing, pounded her until she was in bed for two weeks, "tis charged.

WANTS TO RECOVER.

UNPLEASANT INSINUATIONS. D. M. Sturtevant yesterday filed suit against J. H. and J. W. Birnbaum to recover $300 alleged to have been extorted from him under duress.

On June 17 of last year it is alleged that the defendants represented to him that they had about fifty to sixty charges against his brother, Albert R. Sturtevant, and that they would land him in the penitentiary unless the plaintiff, L. L. Rogers, John and Mary E. George, all relatives of the accused, should make up a shortage of $1000. The plaintiff avers that he handed over $200 and gave a note for double that amount, and L. L. Rogers contributed $200. Now he is seeking to recover the cash.

PERJURY IN A WILL CONTEST.

Bogus Father Forced to Admit That He Had Lied.

Arrest of John Hoadley as He Leaves Witness Stand.

Did the Late Mrs. Longley Leave a Husband?

Bogus paternity proven and perjury admitted, fixed the status of John Hoadley yesterday in the sensational conclusion of the contest over the will of the late Mrs. Etta Longley of this city.

As a result of yesterday's session before Judge Wilbur, Hoadley is not only denied the privilege of mourning Mrs. Longley as a daughter, but the only heritage he will draw from her estate will be a term of imprisonment, the first installment of which he is now enjoying, having been committed to the custody of the Sheriff at the close of court yesterday.

During the lifetime of Mrs. Longley, Hoadley was content to be known as her stepfather, but when he found that he had not been included in her will, he came forward with the contention that he was her real father, and demanded a share of the estate. The evidence yesterday, wrung from Hoadley's unwilling lips, proved that he had not married the mother of Mrs. Longley until two years after the child, Etta, was born. It came hard to the old man to confess his fault, and the indignation of the jury was so great, as the cross-examination wrung him about in the coils of his own making.

Judge Wilbur, severely arraigning the evidence of the aged culprit in releasing the jury for the day, said: "The evidence by his own testimony, and other evidence is clearly perjury, and the Sheriff will take him into custody, and will retain custody of this deponent, Hoadley, a reasonable time to enable the preparation of a complaint against him."

But there is another complication in the case, which will remain for the jury to thresh out today. That is the claim of J. C. Patton of Nogales, to be the husband of the late Mrs. Longley. He traces his claim through deposition, and Hon. Robert N. Bulla, who managed Mrs. Longley's legal affairs for her years, admits that she once confessed to him that she had been married to a man a year ago at Nogales, but that they had agreed to separate and live apart.

Yet, in strange contradiction to this appears Mrs. Longley's statement in her will: "I declare that I am unmarried, and have neither father, mother, nor children."

But, no sooner had she breathed her last than up bobbed a father and a husband. The father was disclosed yesterday. Today the jury will determine upon the status of Patton as husband.

The greater mystery veils this chapter in the life of Mrs. Longley because of her deplorable condition for some time prior to her death, and which rendered unsuccessful all attempts at her restoration to a sane state of mind. Her statement of a marriage in Nogales, but inasmuch as there is no corroborative statement by the man making an appearance, due credence is given.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

SENT TO PATTON. Pie Girado, an Italian by birth, whom time ago broke into ladies' seminary at Fernand, and was found shivering with fright in one of the dormitories. He said that he was being chased by a black man with a gun. Yesterday though lucid he could give no coherent account of his misadventure. He was committed to the Patton asylum.

THE TUCKER DIVORCE. Mrs. Lillian Tucker was granted a divorce from Charles Tucker by Judge James, on the ground of cruelty. In 1899 the wife began this divorce proceeding, but one after the other four of the principal witnesses died, and only yesterday it was brought to trial.

DAMAGES ASKED. E. L. Adams and Mary Adams are suing the Pacific Light and Power Company for $50,000 as damages for the killing of Charles Adams, a crew member of the plaintiff and husband of the other. The deceased was a lineman and was working with the wires at Pasadena avenue and Avenue Thirty-one which he had been informed were "dead." The current was on and he was killed.

HONORS WERE EVEN. The divorce suit of J. W. Jones against Mrs. A. L. Jones, the latter returning the attack in Judge James denying the divorce to both parties.

PLAIN DESERTION. Mrs. Christina Reader was granted a divorce from Jacob Reader by Judge Bordwell, on the ground of desertion. When the suit was begun the husband left the country.

CLUB FOR BOXING. The Pacific Athletic Club has incorporated a new club, the purpose of the corporation being to promote amateur athletic sports and for the maintenance of a gymnasium. The following are the officers and directors: T. J. McCarty, E. S. Powers, C. A. King and S. Magnus, Jr.

SANTA ANA SUE.

City Made Defendant in a Federal Action Started by the Edison Electric Company.

The Edison Electric Company has applied in the Federal courts, for an injunction against the city of Santa Ana, and all the city officers. The corporation doesn't like the new ordinance making rulings regarding the use and setting price rates for gas and electricity, and assert that an enforcement will make profitable business impossible.

The suit is brought by the Edison corporation against the city of Santa Ana; George A. Edgar, G. L. Wright, A. C. Black, James Sleeper and John Cuban, a City Board of Trustees, J. A. Wilson, City Recorder; W. F. Heathman, City Attorney, and G. E. Maxwell, City Marshal.

The Edison company does a big business in light and fuel supply at Santa Ana at the present time, holding long-term franchises, and having many miles of pipe and wire.

The present rate for gas is $2 per 1000 cubic feet, with a rebate of 7 1/2 per cent, for prompt payments. For electricity it charges 15 cents per 1000 watt hours, with a schedule of rebates. The new ordinance, in effect from March 1, 1905, to March 1, 1906, fixes the price of gas at $1.25 per 1000 cubic feet, and the electric rates at 15 cents for the first 1000 watts, 10 cents for

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Club.
The Apollo Club gave its final concert last night at the Mason Opera-house, and the affair was attended by a large number of fair size.
The program consisted of multi-keyed
pieces, of being in many keys at once,
and the vocal work was a revelation.
In their heavy number, Cow-
"Rose Maiden," the tenors became waver in their pitch, commaning the uncertainty to the soprano,
who bewitched the alto, and all all with gentle ease into a symphony of concatenated dis-sonance.

TALKS WITH TRAVELERS.

Antonio Apache, full-blooded Indian
one of the most competent mining miners in the country, was a guest of the Angelus yesterday. The friends
"Four Lo" would find in him a realism of all their dreams for the originals of the soil.
Under thirty years of age, of medium height and square build, showing every movement the strength of frame, Antonio Apache is an interesting figure. It is not often that the products of Carlisle are found using their way in the professions,
being a name for themselves by force and talent, as he is doing.
Based on the Apache reservation in Indian Territory, he went to Carlisle before he was quite sixteen years old. Unlike most of his classmates, he tasted of the white man's life.
He loved to adopt it for good. While he went back to the blanket, or at the very least, he stuck to the stock and boiled shirt. The others tried to show the benefits they had received from their education on the reservations among their kith and kin,
but took a course of mining engineering at Columbia University.
He graduated with honors at the age of twenty, and gained practical experience in his profession in some of the copper mines of Arizona.
He was fortunate at the outset of his career and got wealthy. New York mining men interested in him. Today he has properties of his own and is one of the West in the interests of a newly formed syndicate. He has just gone on a tour through the mining districts of Utah, Idaho and Nevada, and is on his way to New Mexico and Arizona.
He is a quietly dressed, but dignified man. His individuality has attracted a good deal of attention from newspapers, as he has been traveling the country and he does not know either it or not.
There is nothing of particular interest to the public in his visit outside of the fact that he is a native of the Angelus. "I am out here on business and worry I can't spend more time in this town. I have just come from an inspection of the Gold-mine and Bullfrog districts. I guess my friends like that of many other min-ingmen out in the West.
Mining is a good cause. Goldfield is suffering at present from a lack of having been very much in the first place. But there is a line of smaller camps, the line of a new railroad, or rather within
of it, that will take a look at the future of the country. It will take a rise, or it ought to. It has shown me there worth $4 a share upward that has been lying idle for years, because of the difficulty and expense of hauling it. Now they are talking of building a road, and I don't see how they can do otherwise. All those properties will be valuable, more so than many that have been boomed as properties and are worth several hundreds of dollars a ton.
I find competition very hard in this profession. Well, I guess it's no harder than in any other, perhaps not hard as in some. Personally I can't complain. I have been pretty well paid on the whole."
Antonio Apache does not often pay attention to his native reservation. After he does, residence among white men,
and does not either the life or conditions of the reservation. It's not pleasant for educated men to be treated like children, as are the others who have grown through college and gone back."
He says, "Of course, a certain way of

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Tuesday Afternoon.
Of unusual interest was the programme rendered at the last meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of Tropico.
Mrs. F. G. Taylor presided and a number of bright talks were given by club members on "Current Events."
Mrs. Edgar Pack as club critic read a paper sparkling with wit and humor.
Mrs. A. L. Bryant was hostess, and as the subject of the programme was
"German Composers and Artists," read
a most interesting paper on "German Composers," reviewing the lives and giving brief accounts of the origin and general history of the many compositions of each composer. Mrs. Bryant sang several German hymns in tender, sympathetic voice, then by way of comparison rendered two selections of up-to-date songs as sung in our Sabbath schools. The comparison was keenly appreciated. Mrs. Amy Lorber's fine paper on "German Artists" was doubly interesting from the fact that she had arranged in a clever manner a number of beautiful facsimiles of various paintings of many of the German artists.

Pongee Day in the Silk Department

Pongee stands almost without a rival in popularity among America's smartest-gowned women this season. At the seashore—for street wear—in traveling and evening coat—everywhere it is in evidence.
The tendency should be rather toward "stiffening" than lowering prices on a silk that's going to be bought, regardless of cost, but in this store we've reduced prices already unusually reasonable for equally good qualities—like the following:

29-inch "Tokio" Pongee in natural shade only—$1.25
quality for $1.
29-inch "Chefs" Pongee in natural shade only—
$1.50 quality for $1.25.
29-inch "Burmah" Pongee—gold brown, cardinal,
wood brown, black and white; $1 quality for 85c.

27-inch "Meteor" Pongee—a rough, heavy weave of pure raw silk, especially for coats and gowns—navy, dark and gold brown, reseda and gobein shades; $1.50 quality for $1.25.
30-inch "Rajah" Pongee in all colors, including black,
cream and white; $1.25 a yard.

Neckwear at 10c
A large variety of Swiss embroidered turnover collars and net lace stocks for outing wear, etc.—values ranging from 25c to 35c, reduced at 10c each.

Embroideries at 10c a Yard Balance of the embroideries from yesterday's sale at 10c a yard—edges and insertions; values from 15c to 25c; together with additional pieces from our regular stock. The assortment includes a fine showing of dainty patterns
suitable for trimming infants' wear—1/2 to 2-inch embroidery, irrespective of cloth. You may buy any quantity you want, as pieces
will be cut—10c a yard for choice.

75c Ribbons at 35c
Four and five-inch fancy ribbons in Persian, Dresden, plaid and polka dot effects; broken lines of regular 50c and 75c qualities at 35c a yard. On sale today and Saturday.

House Furnishings
Save on lace curtains and bedding for beach cottages or other houses whose furnishings need replenishing. This After-Removal Sale is brimful of opportunities like this:
White Nottingham lace curtains, 3 1/2 yards in length; $2.25 value at $1.65 a pair.
75x72 cotton comforts, silkoline covered; $1.25
value at 95c.
72x78 summer weight comforts; worth $2.25, at $1.75.

Men's Goods Greatly Reduced
Duck and pique vests for men's summer wear—a new shipment just received in white with neat black stripes and figures. $2 values at a dollar.
Men's silk four-in-hand ties in new
and effective patterns—the same sorts sell elsewhere at 50c—here 25c. Washable four-in-hands at the same price.
White pleated shirts in sizes 16,
16 1/2 to 17 only, reduced to 50c.
After-Removal Sale prices prevail
on a large variety of styles in bathing suits for men and boys.

TAKE THE OATH OF HIPPOCRATES.

SIX NEW DOCTORS BOUND BY AN ANCIENT VOW.

Dr. Gates, President of Pomona College, Talking on the Immortality of Matter Declares There is No Death—Pleads for Rigorous Course of Medical Study.

Holding left hands over their hearts, and with their right hands solemnly uplifted toward the heavens, six graduates of the College of Physicians and Surgeons—the first graduating class of that institution—last night publicly took the oath of Hippocrates, originating more than four hundred years ago. It was administered by Dr. Charles B. Nichols, president of the Board of Trustees of the college, just prior to the conferring of degrees by Dr. Benjamin F. Church, dean of the College.

Those who received diplomas were: Newbern Nuckolls Brown, Newell Jonathan Brown, Jr., Luther Mason Cain, Jean Marion Martin, William Fred Stahl and Thomas Senn Wasson. They are now Doctors of Medicine.

The exercises were held in Cunnock Hall, before a large audience. The auditorium was prettily decorated with the college colors and cut flowers. On the stage were the graduates and the college faculty.

An orchestra gave several musical selections, and the invocation was by Rev. Hugh K. Walker of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church. The address was given by Rev. George A. Gates, D.D., L.L.D., president of Pomona College.

Dr. Gates spoke on the theme of the immortality of matter and declared that there is no death, no such thing as vital property any more than any other property, and that it is absolute nonsense to talk of anything as being at rest or absolutely inert. This he proceeded to show by the latest deductions of philosophy and science.

"The greatest metaphysician who ever lived, St. Paul, in one amazing sentence sets forth all this, a great truth, in three words, 'God is all,'" said the speaker. "Modern science teaches that all that is one, and that that one is energy." This was followed by a contrasting of old-time medical methods and theories with those of today, and many witty thrusts were made at the profession. Dr. Gates spoke of the remarkable advancement of women in medical work and declared that in the last eight years the medical schools of America have increased 5 per cent. He paid a vigorous course of study in medical colleges and declared: "I have no use for cheap institutions. Hold your standards high and they will be worth striving to attain. What a difference the physicians turned out of medical colleges were all schools to unite and demand a five or six-year course before these men and women are turned loose on society with the tremendous responsibilities of life and death in their hands." Dr. Gates took occasion to roundly score patent medicines and the avidity with which the American people gulp down these nostrums.

"I sometimes wonder if the Lord Himself hasn't a great sense of humor—else how could he have happened to make such funny people. The ox, the dog, the oyster, the goose and the angelfish are all here to get a living—let us do more than these and be ministers to the highest things of life. Let us live the generous life and see what we can give the world instead of what we can get out of it." Earl Rogers, a member of the board of trustees, made an address to the graduates, in which he outlined the characteristics of the successful physician, and this was followed by the administering of the Hippocratic oath, conferring of degrees and the benediction.

BENEFIT PROGRAMME.
Theatrical Mechanics Fraternal Order Will Receive Testimonial at the Belasco Theater This Afternoon.

All the theaters in town are to participate in the benefit to be given at the Belasco Theater this afternoon by the Theatrical Mechanics' Association, a fraternal organization of stage employees.

The programme is a long one, containing fifteen individual numbers exclusive of musical selections; it will commence at 1:30 o'clock, and will continue, doubtless, until 5.

Among the acts will be a rendition of Emmet Corrigan's sketch, "The Crackman," to be portrayed by Richard Buhler and his wife, Louise Orendorf, who has not yet appeared in Los Angeles. The scenery for this act will be set backward, showing the audience the reverse side. It will then be struck and set with its proper face to the house.

Mr. Buhler, who is a member of the order, will make the opening address. He will be followed by Miss Dot Herndon, Edward O'Brien and Willis West, the Belasco Theater Stock Company, Miss Mary C. Meade, Hugh Emmett, Henry Stockbridge, William Desmond and Blanche Hall, Lambert, La Jolie, Titcomb, the Empire City Quartette, Lillian Melbourne, Raymond Teal and a trio from the Empire Theater.

The Belasco company, with White

Whitely, will present the third act of "Sheridan," Mr. Desmond and Miss Laila will give the love scene from "Mizpah."

THE OIL INDUSTRY.
DEVELOPMENT IN THE MIDWAY.

Many wells to be drilled immediately.

Wide-spread belief that price of fuel oil is likely to go up—interest in Associated Stock—Local Business Men Buy It—Coalinga Pipe Lines Right of Way.

The Chancery-Canfield Midway Oil Company, a half interest in which is owned by the Santa Fe railroad, is to begin drilling between twenty and thirty wells on sections 4 and 24 in the Midway district. Two strings of tools have already been set to work, but the principal development is expected after the completion of the railroad which will have its terminus on section 4.

and shipped to Monterey and the property abandoned.

Thirty-three loaded cars, twenty-six of them filled with oil, made up the heaviest train yet run over the Sunset branch railroad. It came in from the west side a few days ago.

The Independent Agency of Kern River was endeavoring some time since to purchase oil from some of the companies in the Sunset district. It is said that this was due to a demand for some of the heaviest grade of road oil.

COALINGA'S NEW PIPE LINE.
The right of way through San Jose for which the Producers' Union Independent Pipe Line Company has been fighting for some time, has at last been won despite opposition from the powers opposed to it. This means that work is to begin shortly that will insure Coalinga an independent outlet regardless of the sale of the Monterey line.

The Recruit is doing no active development on the land on which it placed a blanket location last January on the Carina plains, but a guard has been placed there to keep out possible jumpers.

Only two wells have been started in that region on section 22 and one on 27, both in township 22, range 22.

Bank Stock for Sale
AT ONLY $5 PER SHARE

Plan to Secure 1000 Stockholders. No One Allowed to Purchase More Than $500 of Stock.

The people of Los Angeles can now buy bank stock at only $5 per share. No one will be allowed to purchase more than $500 of stock. Capital is to be increased to $500,000, making bank of a thousand small stockholders, thereby becoming the people's bank of Los Angeles. The Consolidated Bank of Los Angeles has decided to place its stock with the people, believing that in securing a thousand stockholders it will secure a thousand depositors at the same time. Investors can purchase such stock with absolute safety as to perfect security, and realize a handsome profit therefrom, as has been done by the owners of stock in the various other banks of Los Angeles. This is the only opportunity ever offered the general public to buy stock in a Los Angeles bank at $5 per share. We would rather have 5000 stockholders of $100 each than 1000 of $500 each. We want the greatest number of stockholders, as the more stockholders there are the stronger the bank. All stock fully paid up at Five Dollars per share. Purchasers can buy from 1 to 100 shares at $5 per share, but no one can buy more than $500 of stock. Subscriptions books just opened. Purchasers can subscribe for 100 shares and pay for the same in weekly payments of Five Dollars, and receive one share of paid-up stock as each $5 payment is made. Bank Stock for Sale
AT ONLY $5 PER SHARE

Plan to Secure 1000 Stockholders. No One Allowed to Purchase More Than $500 of Stock.

The people of Los Angeles can now buy bank stock at only $5 per share. No one will be allowed to purchase more than $500 of stock. Capital is to be increased to $500,000, making bank of a thousand small stockholders, thereby becoming the people's bank of Los Angeles. The Consolidated Bank of Los Angeles has decided to place its stock with the people, believing that in securing a thousand stockholders it will secure a thousand depositors at the same time. Investors can purchase such stock with absolute safety as to perfect security, and realize a handsome profit therefrom, as has been done by the owners of stock in the various other banks of Los Angeles. This is the only opportunity ever offered the general public to buy stock in a Los Angeles bank at $5 per share. We would rather have 5000 stockholders of $100 each than 1000 of $500 each. We want the greatest number of stockholders, as the more stockholders there are the stronger the bank. All stock fully paid up at Five Dollars per share. Purchasers can buy from 1 to 100 shares at $5 per share, but no one can buy more than $500 of stock. Subscriptions books just opened. Purchasers can subscribe for 100 shares and pay for the same in weekly payments of Five Dollars, and receive one share of paid-up stock as each $5 payment is made. We want the people to become the stockholders in the people's bank of Los Angeles. Officers: William H. Carlson (Ex-Mayor of the City of San Diego), President; J. G. Batudillo (Ex-State Treasurer of California), First Vice-President; F. H. Dixon (Ex-State Harbor Commissioner of California), Second Vice-President; A. W. Carver, Cashier. Thirty-three loaded cars, twenty-six of them filled with oil, made up the heaviest train yet run over the Sunset branch railroad. It came in from the west side a few days ago.

The Independent Agency of Kern River was endeavoring some time since to purchase oil from some of the companies in the Sunset district. It is said that this was due to a demand for some of the heaviest grade of road oil.

COALINGA'S NEW PIPE LINE.
The right of way through San Jose for which the Producers' Union Independent Pipe Line Company has been fighting for some time, has at last been won despite opposition from the powers opposed to it. This means that work is to begin shortly that will insure Coalinga an independent outlet regardless of the sale of the Monterey line.

JACOBS DEPARTS.
Fred A. Jacobs, Machine Works, Fresno, and his party, who left the Times building last night for the last eight days, are expected to return today. Jacobs is said to have secured a large number of patents for the last eight days, which he will take with him to the States.

The Carson City News-Sun, a newspaper published in Carson, Nev., has been carrying on a campaign to get the law on the books in which he stated that Jacobs expects to make his four passengers in the States. This would land him in the States at 4 o'clock tomorrow morning.

RECONSTRUCTING WALK-OVER SHOE STORE.
At 111 South Spring Street

MANY IMPORTANT CHANGES IN INTERIOR ARRANGEMENT

A GREAT SALE OF WOMEN'S SHOES

ONLY WALK-OVER SALE EVER HELD

The managers of the Walk-Over Shoe Store have decided to entirely remodel their store at 111 So. Spring St. When this store was originally fitted up the shelving was so arranged as to allow four cartons of women's shoes in each shelf. All our modern shoe stores are arranged so that but two cartons are kept in each shelf. It is the plan of the management to entirely rearrange the shelving and also to use larger and longer cartons to conform with the arrangement of our other stores.

Several thousand pairs of women's Walk-Over and Wright's Ideal shoes now on hand will be closed out at greatly reduced prices. This is the only sale of the kind that has ever occurred or is likely to occur again. It is only the great necessity in this case that has induced the managers to offer Walk-Over shoes at less than the standard prices, $3.50 and $4.00. It will mean a great saving of labor as well as expense to close them out at once rather than to ship new cartons from the East and change all the present stock into the new cartons. One who is not acquainted with the retail shoe trade cannot possibly realize what an immense amount of work it would be to change several thousand pairs of shoes into new cartons and rearrange them in the shelves. It entails more labor and expense than the profit on Walk-Over shoes would warrant.

This is why the prices will be cut on women's Walk-Over shoes and "Wright's Ideal" shoes for women. Several hundred pairs where the cartons have been ruined in shipping and handling, will be placed in two great baskets and offered at the very low prices of $1.98 and $2.48 for your choice of the lot. All the light and medium weights are stamped "Wright's Ideal" and the heavyweights "Walk-Over." Many styles also come in the very small sizes (2 to 4) suitable for school girls. The entire remainder of women's Walk-Over shoes, including all the Spring and Summer stock will be on sale at 10 per cent. discount from the regular price. This means that you can get the newest styles sold at $3.50 all over the world for only $3.15. Here you will find the very swiftest models with French heels and Cuban heels—tan, veils kid and patent colt skin oxfords—mannish shapes for street wear and dainty styles for the ballroom—shoes for dress, street and outdoor.

A greater variety of shoes not be found anywhere.

This great sale will continue until the entire stock of women's shoes now on hand is sold.

This sale will apply to a single pair of Walk-Over shoes, not to a whole lot of shoes.

SMELTER TRUST
The Carson City News-Sun, a newspaper published in Carson, Nev., has been carrying on a campaign to get the law on the books in which he stated that Jacobs expects to make his four passengers in the States. This would land him in the States at 4 o'clock tomorrow morning.

MINES AND MINING. CRESCENT LATEST NEVADA TOWN. PROSPECTORS RUSHING INTO NIPPENO DISTRICT.

Quarter Trust Said to be Considering Erection of Big Plant at Tonopah.
Col. Greene and His Opponents.
Cave-in in a Tunnel on Mount Sigel
Delays Work.

Crescent is the name by which the new town four miles from Nippeno station is to be known. According to a report received from a mining man yesterday the town, but a few weeks old,
now has a newspaper, the Crescent,
three, two barbershops, a bakery, a hotel under construction, and no less than five saloons, besides the usual real estate office, town boom factory—and a survey office. Pipe for a waterworks system is said to have been ordered.

An automobile line has been started between Nippeno station on the Salt Lake and Searchlight, passing through Crescent. In place of the stage line started some time ago. Two round trips are made daily. This the second line to run into Searchlight, the connecting with the Santa Fe, and the fourth to be established between Nippeno and Searchlight. It is thought that Nevada mining camps, if those between Goldfield and Bullfrog and Bullfrog and Las Vegas are classed as separate lines. There are three machines for passenger service on the Searchlight line.

According to the Searchlight, the new paper published at that camp,
an offer of $10,000 was refused by the owners of the Lucky Dutchman claim in the Nippeno district, a property located but a few weeks ago, and which,
though it is said to be showing up very well, is only a prospect as yet. A large number of Searchlight and Las Vegas people have gone to the new district and the excitement is said to have assumed boom proportions. Just what is back of all this remains to be demonstrated, although the nearness of the famous mines of Searchlight and the mineral found between the California and Arizona borders are favorable signs.

The Crescent district which adjoins Nippeno, and has been so known for some time, is one in which some mining
has been carried on but in a desultory way. In this district are located the famous turquoise mines, known as the owners of some of the best gems found.

SEARCHLIGHT'S ACTIVITY.
The Pampell Mining Company of this city has just made the last payment of $10,000 on its group of mines at Searchlight, which it has held under lease for the last eighteen months. The lease is said to have been $20,000, of which $20,000 was cash and the balance stock. The property was bought from E. Meis.

An indication that mining men consider the Searchlight district a permanent one is found in the fact that applications for patents are pending on no less than thirty-two claims, according to the Searchlight, and Deputy Mineral Surveyor Henderson is now at work on them. A number of others will be for patent in the near future. These claims are owned by different companies or individuals, and among them
are the following:

Duplex Mining and Milling Company,
Pampell Mining Company, seven;
G. F. Colton, four; Searchlight Copper-Gulf Company, seven; Cyrus Noble,
three; John Wheatley, one.

SMELTER TRUST IN NEVADA.
The Carson City News says that the smelter trust has under consideration the investment of between one and a half and two million dollars in a smelter located in Southern Nevada, probably at Tonopah, to handle the refractory ores of the new districts. It is stated that representatives of the trust are now in the field looking over the country to ascertain if there will be sufficient smelting ore produced to supply
a large plant.

The prospects of an independent smelter being established by mine owners that would serve to keep ore from going to Salt Lake or San Francisco, probably the reason for the trust taking up the matter as it does not make a practice of establishing new plants unless forced to do so.

VIGILANTES AT RHYOLITE.
The Goldfield News states that a vigilance committee has been organized by citizens of Rhyolite for the purpose of keeping the camp and vicinity of a number of objectionable characters who come in with the boom and are making themselves obnoxious. No details of the committee's plans and work are known.

GREENE AND HIS PROPERTIES.
To offset the unfavorable reports recently made Col. W. C. Greene, the cop-er magnate of Cananea, has taken a trip of mining men and officials of the State of Sonora on a visit to the mines of the Greene Gold Company near Magdalena for an inspection of the properties. A sensation has been aroused at El Paso by the publication of a statement that John P. Casey, Jr., a local mining engineer now with a company in Sonora, was offered a bribe by some of Col. Greene's men to make an unfavorable report on his properties.

Work has been suspended on the extension of the Rio Grande, Sierra Madre and Pacific Railroad after grading eleven miles south from Casas Grande and the contractors have entirely withdrawn owing to disagreement with Col. Greene. Some question is being aroused as to whether the work will ever be carried out. The men of engineers and workmen are being rapidly withdrawn.
Work on the smelter at Naco is expected to begin within the next ninety days, according to present plans. Machine for the building has been ordered by the Naco Smelting and Refining Company, a Los Angeles corporation,
of which Robert Mitchell of this city is president. In addition to the smelter there will be an electric light plant and an ice factory with cold storage facilities. The smelter will have a capacity of 250 tons a day.
The Sonora Bonanza Mining Company, operating properties near Magdalena on the Sonora railway, that has been shipping some copper ore, has equipped some wulframite to the mine.

A three years mining concession to explore for mineral in the municipality
of Lower California, District of Mulege, J. Alexander Forbes, has been granted to commence work within six months and pay deposit $200 in public debt bonds
to guarantee good faith.

Charles W. McCrossan, secretary of the Goldfield Mining and Brokerage Company, has issued a statement in which it is stated that the work of mining has been started on the vein
two points on the company's Mount Sierra property. The tunnel which had been in, burying the ore upon which it was expected to make a mill test under tons of earth. The formation at this point is such as to render work dangerous, hence the decision to sink a shaft, where timbering will not be so difficult as the mine is situated 9000 feet above sea level where timbering is a small matter. The ore where the shaft is being sunk averages $80 to $100
a ton.

Prevent Headache

As Well As Cure

If subject to headache, take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills when you feel the first indication of an attack, and you will find that they rarely ever fail to stop further progress.

Pain weakens the nerves, and the longer you suffer, the more frequent will be the attacks.

On the contrary, if the nerves are relieved of this weakening influence, the attacks will be less frequent, and finally disappear altogether.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills contain no opium, cocaine, morphine or chloral in any form. They are absolutely harmless if taken as directed, and will have no other effect, except to drive out the pain.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are all right as I can recommend them to any one in need of a remedy for headache, neuralgia, or pain of any kind. My health is not very good, and I am subject to frequent attacks of severe headache, but since I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills I do not suffer from that trouble as I used to. They never fail to give relief in a few minutes, and if taken promptly on the approach of headache will prevent an attack from coming on. Pain Pills prevent, as well as cure.

VARICOCELE

Every man having varicocele can be cured, but any and every external application—medicines internally, electricity, etc.—is worthless. There is but one method that will cure varicocele. Dr. Harrison is the only specialist in Los Angeles using that method. Dr. Harrison guarantees an absolute permanent and perfect cure. We will show dozens of men right here in Los Angeles who have been cured. We cordially invite men to call.

Contracted Disorders

Are cured by us. Every particle of poison thoroughly eradicated from the system. Every patient coming to us consults no one but Dr. Harrison or his associate, both regular physicians. Each and every man coming to us for consultation has his case carefully and understandingly looked into. Every case we treat receives our personal attention.

STRICTURE

This trouble we treat successfully by our improved method, which never fails to bring about a cure. Electricity or electric belts cannot do this trouble any good. When you employ either you throw your money away. Call and let us explain the nature of the trouble and how you can be permanently cured.

"WEAKNESS"

Affections of men commonly described as "weakness," according to our observations, are not such, but depend upon reflex disturbances and are almost invariably induced or maintained by appreciable damage to the prostate gland. This may not be perceived by the patient. It is very frequently overlooked by the physician. If you come to us, we give you a thorough examination and consultation, absolutely free, and faithfully tell you if you can be cured.

MEN

We are Specialists for Varicocele, Hydrocele, Piles, Prostatitis, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, etc.

Our Medical Journal Free

Downstairs at our entrance, 607 1/2 South Broadway, you can help yourself to our medical journal, an extensive description of our special work is given. It contains full information, which we cannot publish in our advertisement. If you live out of the city, write for one.

THINK BURGLARS ARE IN TOW.

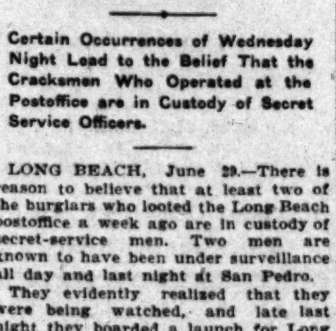

TWO MEN UNDER SURVEILLANCE IN LONG BEACH.

Certain Occurrences of Wednesday Night Lead to the Belief That the Cracksmen Who Operated at the Postoffice are in Custody of Secret Service Officers.

LONG BEACH, June 29.—There is reason to believe that at least two of the burglars who looted the Long Beach postoffice a week ago are in custody of secret-service men. Two men are known to have been under surveillance all day and last night at San Pedro.

The Store That Sells Hanan's Shoes

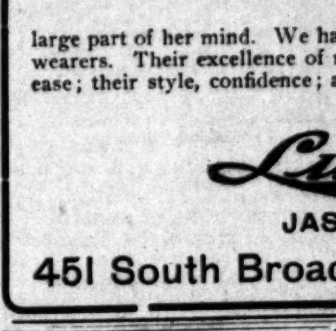

The Importance of Proper Shoes

The shoe is the most important item of a woman's dress, for on it largely depends the expression of her walk. It was a great philosopher who said: "His mind is like his walk." So every woman expresses in her walk a large part of her mind.
